ABSTRACT

The objective of this research is to establish an organization model for the prevention and suppression of human trafficking which has authority in investigation for arrest; investigation and arrest for prosecution; and remedy. The responsibility area cover throughout the Kingdom. Research methodology is qualitative research including documentary research; in-depth interview; participatory design, co-design; and hearing.

The research found out that the problem of ineffectiveness of prevention and suppression of human trafficking due to many organizations have the same authority in investigation for arrest; investigation and arrest for prosecution; and remedy which overlapping, lack of integration, checks and balances among responsible organizations which cause legal gap for government officials to improperly exploit. The research therefore proposed to establish a committee organization consisting of 6 organizations which are Royal Thai Police; Human Trafficking Suppression Division; Department of Special Investigation; Department of Provincial Administration; Office of the Attorney General; Ministry of Social Development and Human Security. The jurisdiction authority throughout the Kingdom.

The research suggested to establish a committee organization with legal support for the effectiveness of prevention and suppression of human trafficking. Further research recommended to be “The draft of code on Human Trafficking.
