Message from the President of Burapha University, Thailand

The 15th Great Oriental Art Exhibition provide a great platform for knowledge and inspiration exchange between artists. The exhibition aims to promote the field of art and culture in line with the strategic plan initiated under the collaboration between Burapha University and Dali University

The art exhibition is expected to contribute to the development of learning and teaching as well as to promote new aspects of art knowledge. This event will also facilitate collaborations within and among art institutes and universities, thereby being a fruitful benefit to all participants. Moreover, we believe this exhibition will help broaden art knowledge, concepts, and inspirations to communities, society, and our country.

On behalf of Burapha University, I would like to express heartfelt gratitude to all of network affiliate and all stakeholders who supported the event, enabling us to successfully complete our mission. I sincerely hope that the 15th Great Oriental Art Exhibition will continue to receive support, further strengthening the cooperation between Burapha University and Dali University, along with all our partners. I wish this event every success and look forward to its fruitful outcome.

Thank you

Message from the Dean of the Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts,
Burapha University, Thailand

The 15th Great Oriental Art Exhibition is a collaboration between Burapha University, Thailand and Dali University, China. Therefore, the Great Oriental Art Exhibition has been continuously organized up until the present, which has come to its 15th exhibition this year. The exhibition is also supported by the international partnership networks in China, India, South Korea, Vietnam, Australia, Austria, Italy, Spain, Sweden, England, Canada, Mexico and USA

The artworks displayed at this event were carefully curated by recognized experts. We currently have over 160 artworks from artists and designers from various countries. This exhibition will provide the great opportunity to all attendees to share their knowledge, experiences, cultures and various forms of artistic creations. This will create a favorable environment for new ideas and development of artwork and serve as an inspiration for artists who will create inspiring artwork in the future.

On behalf of Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts, Burapha University, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dali University, the organizing committee and our international partners representing many well-known institutions. Also, I would also like to express my appreciation to all the organizers and artists who have contributed to the success of this event.

I sincerely hope that the 15th Great Oriental Art Exhibition will encourage further collaborations among art institutions, artists from Thailand and different countries to develop their promising partnership networks. This will, in turn, contribute to the country's development of new knowledge, which can be beneficial for the creation of artwork may arise in the future.

Thank you

Sakesan Tonyapirom.

Dean of the Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts, Burapha University, Thailand.

Message from the Dean of School of Arts at Dali University,

The 15th Great Oriental Art Exhibition as a highly significant platform for fostering cultural understanding and exchanging artistic expressions. This year marks a remarkable milestone for our longstanding partnership as Dali University and Burapha University celebrate the 20th anniversary of the "Great Oriental Art Exhibition", a distinguished collaborative endeavor that has stood as a symbol of artistic interaction between higher education institutions in Yunnan Province, China, and Thailand. As Burapha University prepare to host the 15th Great Oriental Art Exhibition in 2023, coinciding with the 10th anniversary of the "Belt and Road Initiative", it serves as a testament to our enduring commitment to cultural exchange. We are dedicated to fostering a deeper connection and mutual understanding between our two universities, further strengthening the ties that have united us in art and culture for the past two decades. We offer our sincerest wishes for the success of the 15th Great Oriental Art Exhibition, and we look forward to witnessing the flourishing cultural and artistic exchange between China and Thailand.

Thank you!

Professor Zhao Quansheng
Dean of School of Arts at Dali University
